Description:

Why does the US lack a universal health care system? What would it take to implement universal health care in the US? What would an American system of universal health care look like? In this course, we analyze the historical evolution of the patchwork of institutions and organizations that make up US health care systems. We read recent scholarship and reporting that compares the US to other developed countries to understand how different health care systems function. We apply concepts from these readings to debate whether the US can achieve the political and economic requisites of a universal health care system.

Expectations:

Assigned readings are listed on the syllabus according to the day they will be discussed. You are expected to have completed these readings prior to coming to class on the day we discuss the relevant material. This course is taught in a seminar style. As such, you are expected to come to class prepared to actively participate in discussions about the reading assigned for that day. Always bring a copy of the assigned material to class.

Attendance in seminar is mandatory. If you must miss more than 3 class sessions it is important you notify me or your advising dean.

While you are welcome to study with other students, the work you submit should reflect your individual intellectual effort appropriately applied to the class assignments. I take academic integrity very seriously and will forward any suspected academic integrity to the appropriate disciplinary body without hesitation.

If you are concerned about your ability to complete any of these assignments in a timely manner, please communicate with me well in advance. I will always consider granting extensions where they are appropriate.
